SOARING UP UP AND AWAY

MAY

2025

Dear Friends,

We're excited to share the life-changing stories of children at Agape Children's Home and Agape Academy International. Through our newsletters, emails, website, and Facebook page (facebook.com/AgapeChildrensHome), we're bringing you along on this journey of faith and triumph. This edition highlights the past school year, showcasing the incredible ways God is working in the lives of these precious children. Join us in celebrating His goodness and love!

MOSES

Moses has had an amazing school term! We're so proud of how hard he's working and how much he's growing. He's curious about everything and loves to learn new things - always asking great questions and noticing tiny details. It's wonderful to see him exploring the world with such enthusiasm!

In class, Moses is a joy to be around. He's confident, kind, and always willing to help others. He shows the love of Christ in everything he does, and his positivity is contagious! He loves working with his friends and makes the classroom a happier place.

At home, Moses is growing into a thoughtful and considerate young person. He's learning to share, take turns, and show kindness to others. His creativity shines in arts and crafts, and he loves making beautiful projects. We know God's got big plans for him, and we can't wait to see what the future holds!

AKU

We've loved watching Aku grow and thrive this year! At seven years old, she's already showing a great work ethic and a heart for learning. In class, Aku dives into her assignments with enthusiasm and always tries her best. She's developed a real knack for focusing and paying attention to details, which has helped her make steady progress.

But what really stands out about Aku is her amazing personality. When she joined our Agape Family five years ago, she was so timid she barely spoke to anyone. Now she has grown into a kind, respectful, and honest little girl who always tries to do the right thing. Whether she's working with friends or tackling challenges on her own, Aku's positive attitude and resilience shine through. We can see the love of Christ shining in her heart, and it's beautiful to watch her grow in her faith.

KELVIN O

We're so proud of Kelvin's progress this term! He's worked super hard and really turned things around. Kelvin's curiosity and love for learning are contagious - he asks great questions and loves to dig deeper. He shows a real spiritual gift for leadership at school, and his friends look up to him.

One of Kelvin's greatest strengths is his heart for others. He's kind, compassionate, and always willing to lend a hand.

At home, Kelvin is growing into a responsible and creative young person, tackling challenges with patience and confidence. Best of all, Kelvin is growing in his faith. He's learning to trust God and follow the Lord.

JOSEPHINE

It's been enjoyable watching Josephine's steady progress and admirable growth this academic year. At twelve years old, she's distinguished herself as a hardworking and dedicated student. In class, Josephine demonstrates diligence and responsibility, applying feedback thoughtfully and engaging in discussions. Her ability to collaborate with peers and approach challenges with patience is commendable.

Josephine shows Christ-like compassion, which is so valuable at the school and home. She's respectful and helpful, creating a warm environment. Her achievements reflect her academic capabilities, strong moral values, and work ethic. We're proud of Josephine's progress and look forward to seeing what the Lord does next in her life.

SOARING UP UP AND AWAY

PAUL

Paul had never been to school when he joined our Agape Family in 2019. Today, he is excelling at school and in his faith journey. He's been working hard and staying committed to his goals, and it's amazing to see. Paul's integrity shines through in everything he does - he's honest, reliable, and always tries to do the right thing.

One of the things that stands out about Paul is his heart for others. He's kind, empathetic, and always willing to lend a helping hand, whether it's in class or on the playground. When challenges come up, he faces them head-on with determination and perseverance, inspiring others with his courage. Paul's a true leader in our school community, and his positivity is contagious! He has a way of making everyone feel welcome and included.

At home, Paul's character continues to grow and mature. He's respectful, obedient, and a joy to be around, always showing a willingness to learn and improve. We give God all the praise for the great transformation in Paul – from a child slave to a child of God!

Your investment in the lives of children at Agape Children's Home makes a tangible difference, providing for their physical needs and nurturing their spiritual growth. You're helping to shape their futures, inspire their dreams, and point them to the hope that is found in Christ.

KWAKU

Kwaku has had a wonderful school term, and we thank God for his hard work and progress. Kwaku's curiosity is infectious - he asks great questions and is always eager to explore new topics. He's a joy to teach!

Kwaku is responsible, taking care of his belongings and completing his homework. He's respectful and kind to everyone, listening well and following the rules. He reflects Jesus to others by being a great friend to all the other children.

At home, Kwaku's playful spirit shines through - he's a delight to be around! He's growing into a thoughtful and gentle young boy, always looking for ways to help others.

CHRISTABEL

It has been a genuine pleasure to witness the growth and development of Christabel over the course of this academic year. Now thirteen years old, Christabel has distinguished herself through her enthusiasm, curiosity, and positive character, both in the classroom and at home.

In her academic work, Christabel consistently demonstrates a high level of enthusiasm. She approaches each new subject with excitement and eagerness, and she actively participates in class activities with energy and interest. Her curiosity is one of her most admirable traits, as she displays a strong desire to explore ideas and ask thoughtful questions that deepen her understanding and contribute to the learning environment.

In class, Christabel's a great teammate - she's friendly, cooperative, and always willing to lend a hand. Her creativity shines through in her assignments and projects, and her determination enables her to persevere through challenges with confidence and resilience.

At home, Christabel is showing great character. She's responsible and self-disciplined. Her generosity and kindness demonstrate a heart that seeks to serve others, following Jesus' example of love and compassion.
